See biographical information on participants below.

November 5, 1990 "MYSTICISM IN DAILY LIFE" — Cinda Crull Worth, M.S., M.Div.
Cinda is a trained Psycho-Spiritual Integration Specialist. She has studied the metaphysical arts for the past 14 years and combines them with her psychological and theological training to provide rare insights. Cinda currently conducts a Mystery School, personal readings, individual journey work, and workshops on practical intuition and other uses of mysticism for daily life.

December 3, 1990 "GAIA: OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH THE EARTH" — Lucille Bertuccio
Lucille has recognized the close ties we have to our planet through eighteen years of teaching environmental education. From Central Park in the middle of Manhattan to a ridge top in Central Indiana, the Earth speaks to us in terms that we understand if we know how to listen. Lucille is presently in the Recreation and Parks Administration doctorate program at Indiana University.

January 7, 1991 "SIMPLE TRANCE TECHNIQUES FOR EVERYONE" — Rebecca Crystal
Rebecca has been a professional psychic for the last ten years. In various workshops she attempts to demystify the world of the psychic through offering clients skills they can learn. Her consultations include psychic portraits as well as participatory trance work to gain information on current or long standing issues. She co-facilitates free Magick classes through CUUPS at the Unitarian Universalist Church every Thursday night.

February 4, 1991 "CHOICE-CENTERED LIVING" — Gail Fairfield
Gail is a professional Astrologer and Tarot card reader as well as an NLP changeworker. She is certified by the American Federation of Astrologers and is an NLP Master Programmer. She is author of Choice Centered Tarot and Choice Centered Astrology. Gail is a warm, caring teacher who has the ability to get to the heart of the subject and make it accessible to others. She combines years of practical experience with intuition and psychological awareness. Gail has degrees in psychology and education.

March 4, 1991 "RE-CONNECTING WITH JUDAISM: EXPLORING PASSOVER FROM MULTIPLE PERSPECTIVES" — Deb Gordon
Deb grew up Jewish, drifted away when she came out as a Lesbian and spent some time exploring other religious traditions. During the last four years Deb has returned to active involvement in the Jewish community. She is currently Chazzanit (Cantor) for the Bloomington Synagogue, and intends to go on to Rabbinical school. Her sojourn away from her roots has opened up to her the universal aspects of our spiritual quests as well as deepening her appreciation for the teaching of her own tradition.

April 1, 1991 "MOVING THROUGH TRADITIONAL RELIGION TOWARD A PERSONAL SPIRITUALITY" — Rete
Rete has followed a path in Recovery for over a decade. She is addressing in her personal program the need to go back to roots of traditional religion and social attitude and clean house. Her involvement with an international self-help community, sponsorship of an Alateen group, and facilitation of a self-help group in a battered women's shelter has afforded her an opportunity to examine, update and personalize her connection with the Universe. Re-claiming her self and her relationship with Self is Rete's approach to healthy, spirit-based recovery.
